TROOPS ON BOTH SIDES RESTING

INACTIVITY REPORTED IN MANCHURIA.

Heavy Roads and Hard Rain Put a Check to Hostilities Between Russians and Japanese—Various News.

"The troops on both sides are resting," Thos. information from the Associated Press correspondent at Mukden came in a dispatch filed at 10:55 Saturday night, and, coupled with reports received at St. Petersburg from Kurapatkin and Sakharoff reporting inactivity in the fighting zone Thursday and Friday, indicates since Thursday, because of the torrential rains and heavy roads, hostilities have been reduced to a minimum.

The rear guard of the Russians has succeeded in taking most of its transport and guns through Mukden. The Japanese, however, are reported going there by railroad and the force under Kuroki is in the hills east of Mukden.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says the war office is reluctantly disposed to admit that with the defeat of the Russians at Liao Yang practically the hope of turning the tide of war this year has departed; that Kurapatkin must retire, await reinforcements and prepare for a new campaign next year.

No word is heard in St. Petersburg looking in the direction of peace, however.

Chinese reports received at Mukden estimate the Japanese forces in the battle of Liao Yang at 300,000 men, of whom 70,000 were Chinese and Koreans.

Kuroki reports that after the battle of Sept. 5 the Russians took 10,000 wounded to Mukden, leaving 3,000 in the vicinity of Liao Yang.

No official figures on the losses at the battle of Liao Yang have been given out.

NEXT ASSAULT.
Chefoo, Sept. 10.—Nogi's next assault upon Port Arthur will be directed chiefly against Rihlungshan and Kikwanshan forts, which are the strongest forts on the northeast flank. This information is derived from an unquestioned authority who has just finished a visit over the Japanese lines around the forts and conversed with Japanese officers, who allowed him to make personal observations.

The elevation of Rihlungshan is 350 feet. Three hundred yards away on the same wing is another hill much lower than Rihlungshan and protects it from all bombardment except from Tishan and Kikwanshan. This hill is part of a section which the Chinese call Pailouang. There the Japanese have strengthened two forts recently established. This position is the foundation for Japanese preparations for the next assault. The work of constructing trenches is advancing rapidly, considering the fire which the diggers are compelled to endure. Preparations for the assault on Kikwanshan are proceeding in similar fashion. The range of hills crowned by Kikwanshan and Rihlungshan have irregular slopes, enabling a large force of Japanese to rest securely some distance up the slope. The Japanese tents are pitched and are relieved every three days. Food and ammunition and other supplies are brought them at night only for the reason that the detachments are obliged to cross a level stretch before reaching a place of safety. The Japanese trenches, almost under the noses of the Russians, now are partially constructed. The Russians endeavor constantly to level the incline, shelling the projections which afford shelter to the Japanese, who in turn bombard to prevent the Russians from succeeding.

THESE SEEMS LITTLE DOUBT that the assault on Rihlungshan and Kikwanshan will be the most trying one that the Russians have yet resisted. Everything which ingenuity can suggest is being done by the Japanese to render the attack successful, particular attention being paid to measures which will enable the Japanese to retain the forts in event they capture them.

The entire Japanese force now surrounding Port Arthur is estimated at 80,000 fighting men. The Japanese losses for the past five weeks are placed at 20,000.

FROM KUROPATKIN.
St. Petersburg, Sept. 10.—The emperor received the following from Kurapatkin, dated yesterday:
"No fighting has taken place in the sphere of operations and the enemy showed no perceptible activity Sept. 8 or 9. Heavy rains continue which do not permit roads drying or being repaired."

POSTPONE ASSAULT

Later Date Chosen by Japs for Attack on Port Arthur.

Chefoo, Sept. 10.—Japs who left Dalny yesterday say the grand assault on Port Arthur planned by the Japs for today, has been postponed until the 13th or even later, as the Japanese intend to make every possible preparation before again hurling themselves upon the worn-out garrison.

Chinamen who left Port Arthur Sept. 5 confirm reports of heavy fighting Aug. 27 to 31, when they worked night and day burying dead, which included Chinese, Russians and Japanese, indiscriminately. They say that during this fight four forts in the vicinity of Rihlungshan were captured by Japanese, but later they were compelled to retire under heavy bombardment. Since the last fighting has been comparatively unimportant, the Russians have since remounted guns upon the four forts above mentioned.

LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES.
Tie Pass, Manchuria, Sept. 10.—Losses on both sides from Aug. 26 to Sept. 5 are estimated at from 60,000 to 70,000 killed or wounded. Many were left behind in the Chinese corn.

TELLS OF LIAO YANG BATTLE

REPORT BY ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT

Panic Seized All When Japanese Shells Began to Fall—Soldiers and Citizens Seek Refuge Behind City Wall.

Liao Yang, Sept. 4, via Tien Tsin, Sept. 10.—The correspondent of the Associated Press was at lunch at the railroad station at noon Sept. 1 when the first Japanese shell struck the foreign settlement, and within fifteen minutes everybody fled and the place was deserted. Japanese shells continued to fall. A panic seized all and officers, orderlies, soldiers and others sought refuge beyond the northern wall of the city.

In the early morning of the 1st the Russians filled all the trenches, rifle pits and forts to the west and south of Liao Yang with fresh troops. They kept up a continual shrapnel fire upon the Japanese approaches without being aware of the extra movements of the enemy. During this time the main body of the Russian army was in active retreat.

At 6 o'clock in the evening the Japanese could be seen advancing over the southern hills and Russian gunners poured a terrible and destructive fire upon the enemy. The positions at Chifanantun were seen to be deserted. The right flank of Nodzu's army had previously taken up a position west of Chifanantun, whence his troops charged the Russian breastworks. One Japanese battery lost every officer in this charge and a corporal was seen to take command.

The Japanese shells fell thick over the Russian battery located in a western suburb of Liao Yang.

At 8 o'clock the morning of Sept. 2 the transport of the Russian army was still going out to the north and the head of the train was almost opposite Yental. The fighting around Liao Yang began at daybreak, when shells were thrown from the entire Japanese lines. Kuroki severed his connection with the Japanese center army and left the Anping road unprotected. His army was in front of the last Russian position in the coal mining district east of Yental. The importance and effect of Kuroki's dash to the Russian rear was particularly noticeable this morning. Foreign military attaches had been escorted from Liao Yang north. They left their train at a point near Yental and proceeded in the direction of the fighting between Kuroki's troops and the Russians who were attempting to hold them back. Here the Russians had an important hill position, only to gain it again and lose it a second time. This greatly discouraged the Russian soldiers. It is declared the immediate and precipitate retreat of the entire Russian army at Liao Yang was prevented by retaking this hill, which lies east of Yental. The Russians, however, could not hold the hill and the Japanese were again in possession.

Kuroki's attack at Yental relaxed and General Mischchenko and his command was withdrawn from the Russian defenders of Yental and sent over to the west side of the railroad to make a demonstration and to aid in covering the retreat of the main army.

At five in the afternoon two Russian regiments who had been beaten east of Yental retreated toward Yental. They were ordered back to the fighting line while still under the sharp Japanese rifle fire. The correspondent of the Associated Press, who was working his way south along the railroad, passed a number of Russian troops who had been driven back from around Yental. He also passed a train bearing 300 Russian wounded north.

The night of Sept. 2 was marked throughout by furious rifle firing outside of Liao Yang. Russian troops were in a highly nervous and excited state. They were convinced the Japanese were creeping forward irresistibly all the time.

Sept. 3 saw a resumption of cannonading at dawn and vast clouds of smoke which arose slowly from burning warehouses in the foreign settlement at Liao Yang could be seen for ten miles. When the correspondent passed the fire swept bed of the Elise river on his way into Liao Yang at noon Sept. 3 the Russian infantry had retired from the immediate front to shelter behind the south wall of the city. Upon getting into Liao Yang it was seen Japanese rifle bullets were falling around the railroad station and that all lumber and wooden buildings in that vicinity were in flames.

It was apparent that the Russians were using the walls of the city for protection. This the Japanese discovered and consequently they continued to throw shells into Liao Yang. During the night all Russian sentries were withdrawn from Liao Yang. Pontoon bridges across the Taisie river were hurriedly removed. The Japanese entered and took possession of the city and the correspondent was taken prisoner before he was aware of what had occurred.

The battle of Liao Yang is accepted here as determining the mastery of Manchuria. In it the Russians were fully equal in numerical strength to the Japanese, who had approximately 180,000 men in the field. The Russian artillery was superior in range and rapidly of fire to that of the Japanese.

The Russians forced the Japanese attackers to take dangerous positions by incessant assaults. In many instances the Russians lost more men behind their breastworks than did the attacking Japanese. In fighting on the plains, where the Russians believed they would have the upper hand because of their superiority in cavalry, and of the opportunities to deliver bayonet charges, the Japanese resisted successfully.

Russian losses in the fighting around Liao Yang are estimated at 30 per cent of the number of troops engaged.

The Japanese are preparing to make Liao Yang the headquarters of their Manchurian armies.

State Park, in Which is Some of the Finest Redwood Timber, Is Doomed—Property of All Kinds Destroyed.

San Francisco, Sept. 10.—Forest fires are now raging in many of the principal timber sections in the northern districts of California and in the immediate vicinity of this city. In Santa Cruz mountains the situation is serious in the extreme. It is believed the state park in the big basin, which contains some of the finest redwood timber in the state, is doomed. Down the mountains to the east line flames are now sweeping everything before them, ranches and property of all kinds. From Tehama, Butte and other points up north come reports of loss by flames which have swept the mountains. So far no loss of human life is reported.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE ANNIVERSARY

Outline Program Issued—Delegates to Come From All Parts of the United States Without Expense to the College—Big Parade Friday Sept. 23.

Final arrangements for the anniversary celebration of Illinois college are being pushed rapidly to completion, and everything is being brought into shape for the complete success of the great event. When it is fully understood that one hundred and fifty or two hundred men of national and international reputation will be here to lend the honor of their presence, and to give the results of their years of study in their several addresses, freely and absolutely without cost to the college, it will be understood what a great thing the gathering will be for this city and state, and how far-reaching the results may be. Some of the visitors will be at hundreds of dollars of expense, personally, to enable them to attend, and the delegates from other colleges and universities will have their expenses paid by the schools they represent.

The finance committee of the business men are meeting with a ready response, which is very encouraging to the promoters of the undertaking. In addition to contributing some share toward the necessary expenses of the celebration, the business men of the city will be asked to close during the procession between 1 and 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon of anniversary week. ## FOR CORN GROWERS.

The advisory board of the corn section of the University of Illinois experimental work, Messrs. F. A. Warner, of the Sibley farms; E. E. Chester, of Champaign; J. H. Coolidge, of Galesburg; Mr. Baxter, of Decatur; and C. A. Rowe, of this city, expect to start out on a tour of inspection Sept. 19, and examine the experimental stations at Sibley, Champaign and Mattoon. They are to be accompanied by Professors Hume and Smith, of Illinois university, and Dr. Hopkins, of Davenport, Iowa, and if the gentlemen from the other points are as suitable and capable as the one appointed from Morgan county, they will accomplish much good for the farmers of the state. Mr. Rowe says the legislature appropriated $10,000 a year for the purposes of the board and it had been judiciously expended, and if kept up for a number of years, so that something like permanent results can be obtained, the work of the body would be decidedly useful to the cause of agriculture.

A BEAUTIFUL GIFT.

A friend has sent Mr. and Mrs. J. Herman, of this city, a beautiful gift in the shape of a miniature representation of an altar such as is used in Hebrew houses of worship. The article is of exquisite workmanship and in the original tongue is called a "Safa Torst." The altar front is beautifully formed and is of fine workmanship, with lovely ornaments and in front has folding doors, within which is the sacred roll containing the ten commandments and the Jewish articles of faith. In the real altar this scroll is large and the letters can be seen for some distance, so that the officiating rabbi places it on the wall before him as he reads and expounds, pointing to, each character with a silver pointer, which is represented also in the small gift. The miniature scroll is formed exactly as the large one, is and in small print contains all that is on the larger one. Naturally the present is much valued by Mr. and Mrs. Herman.

Now Ready

The repairs upon my store building have been completed and I am now ready to show a full line of Wall Paper and Paints. I am prepared to handle large or small contracts for high class painting. In order to reduce my stock to make room for fall styles, I will continue the present great discount sales, which have been so attractive. My store will be open every Saturday evening to accommodate people who cannot call during working hours.

A PROTEST.

Editor Journal—
In reading the proceedings of the Denben Republican club in the Daily Journal of Sept. 10, I am constrained to enter my humble objection to two propositions.

First, I am opposed to the name of the Denben Republican club, because it implies an office holders' club, and the founders of this club should understand that this is a bad departure from the traditional methods of our grand old party. Why this cold exclusion of the name of Theodore Roosevelt? The leaders of our party must know and understand that President Roosevelt is beloved by his party and outside of his party, as evidenced by the verdict of the people of Vermont. I am in favor of a Roosevelt-Denben club.

Second, I am opposed to the plan of having Mr. Denben speak in the opera house. This plan means that many hundreds of Republicans and our misguided friends outside the railings of the Republican party will not be able to hear the glad and wholesome doctrine of Republicanism—the parent of education, prosperity and happiness in every household.

Third, I am unalterably opposed to a silent campaign. Our cause is worthy of attention. We expound the gospel of protection to American labor, which insures to the wage earner a full dinner pail and to the capitalist a fair dividend on his investment. We preach the universal creed of peace and good will to all men. Our political church creed is broad and liberal, and is good for every section of our country wherever "Old Glory" waves. Our national standard bearer, President Roosevelt, is an Andrew Jackson. There is no deception or mummification or trick telegraphism about Mr. Roosevelt. Therefore, we should make an aggressive charge on the disunited and discordant ranks of the Democratic party and give hope and shelter to those whose good sense leads them to the folds of a party that is not afraid to tell the people what it stands for. We lost the presidency in 1892 by this quiet nonsense. Silence means cowardice. Silence means apathy, and apathy is an enemy of defeat.

Generals Grant and Sherman were strenuously aggressive, hence their victories. Yours,
M. J. Clerihan.

READ THIS:

Jacksonville, Ill., Aug. 24, 1901.—For twelve years I have suffered from sweet diabetes and have spent hundreds of dollars with various doctors, with but little benefit. I was recommended to try a bottle of Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, and will cheerfully testify to the public that it did me more good than all things else put together and am altogether another man. I have persuaded many of my friends to try it.

RAILROAD NEWS NOTES

Collectors for the Alton—"Q" Officials—Here News of Local Interest.

An important announcement was made in Alton transportation circles Friday. It has been decided to put ticket collectors on all the through trains and they will go on duty as soon as their uniforms are made. The passenger department learned that a large number of tickets were not being taken up, due to the demands for the redemption, bought but not collected by conductors. General Manager Goodnow has been figuring upon the expense of collectors and the estimate of loss by not collecting transportation, and finally recommended that the collectors be put in service.

George Sargent, agent of the Wabash at Chapin, has been promoted to the freight office at Springfield. He was stationed at Markham for a number of years. The agent at Adair will take his place.

William Cadigan, of the boiler shops, is suffering from an attack of fever at Our Savior's hospital. His condition is not serious and his friends hope for a speedy recovery.

A conference was held Saturday at the office of the Burlington here between the officials of that road and the C. & P. & St. L. W. Berry, division superintendent; Taylor L. Smith, master mechanic, and W. A. Card, trainmaster, represented the Burlington, and M. D. Schaaf, trainmaster, represented the C. & P. & St. L. The exact significance of the meeting is not known, but it is reported that it was probably relative to the matter of the Burlington using the C. & P. & St. L. tracks.

Louis Selby, C. & P. & St. L. ticket agent, went to Springfield Saturday to visit relatives.

One of the most important railroad deals ever consummated affecting Pittsburg was closed Friday in New York, when the Wabash interests, for the sum of $12,000,000, purchased the Pittsburg Terminal Railroad & Coal company, the West Side Belt road and its branches, including all the associated companies of the coal company.

Thomas McDonald, roadmaster of the Wabash at Decatur, was in the city Saturday on business.

The Alton local north, due to leave here at 9:31 a. m., was delayed here until 3:45 p. m., on account of the heavy business.

New York Sept. 9.—That E. H. Harriman has lost control of the Chicago and Alton railroad probably to the men representing the Rock Island railroad, was the startling news which agitated Wall street to day. While representatives of the Harriman interests refused to discuss the report, it was confirmed in other quarters. The purchasers are known to be John W. Gates, Edwin Hawley, and one or two others.

The purchase was not made recently, but the control of the road gradually was acquired during the last year, most of the stock having been purchased at extremely low prices nearly a year ago. That something had happened to the stock is the conviction which it is supposed prompted E. H. Harriman to get up his famous pool for the control of the stock, under which he proposed to sell the road to some other company, presumably the Union Pacific.

Wall street has reason to believe that when Harriman found out that there had been such heavy absorption of stock he decided to make an attempt to get back into control apparently under the impression the purchases had been made by outsiders, with no particular purpose in view. These, he may have thought, would be glad to accept 90 for their shares, which was more than their market price.

The offer consequently was made to all holders to deposit their stock with Kuhn, Loeb & Co. in a sort of a blind pool which should extend until Sept. 30 this year. The promise was made that the sale to another road on basis of 90 for preferred and 60 for common would be arranged, provided more than a majority be deposited. If the plan should fail the stock was to be returned to the depositors.

When Harriman returned from Europe the other day he was asked what he intended to do with the Alton, and he replied he did not know. It was thought he was not ready to announce his plans, but it now appears that he, not having control of the road, could not tell what would be done with it.

The first news of the change in control came from Chicago, where Charles W. Gates is said to have stated that John W. Gates, Edwin Hawley, and the so-called Rock Island party would block Harriman's plans for the Alton. On the part of John W. Gates this is the second time he has executed the remarkable coup of acquiring the control of a railroad in the open market without those in control becoming aware of the fact until it was too late.

That $100 in Gold

Unfortunately, up to Saturday night, Sept. 3, there are still almost 500 keys to the $100 box still out among our numerous patrons, or lost and misplaced. If an advertising plan ever was run on its merits, just and honestly, this one has been; but if people don't bring in the keys to be tried, it will be impossible for us to find the right key, and eventually we will be forced to donate the money as advertised to the hospitals. It does not belong to us.

Your Last Chance

We will try keys up to MONDAY, OCTOBER 3, and if the right key cannot be found the money will be divided and donated to the Passavant Memorial hospital and Our Savior's hospital. DON'T WAIT, BUT BRING IN YOUR KEYS

THE ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

First Term Opens Wednesday—Changes in the Faculty—New Heating and Lighting Plant.

The Illinois Woman's college is ready for its opening next week, and the prospects are for an attendance which will be even greater than that of last year. The remarkable record the school has made in the past has been its best advertisement, and in fact, the only one needed to make it a continued success.

The school year begins Wednesday, Sept. 14. Monday and Tuesday, the 12th and 13th, will be enrollment days. The first chapel service will be held at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. The second term begins Jan. 25, 1905.

THE FACULTY.

In the large faculty of twenty-three instructors only a few changes occur.

On account of her health, Miss Austin, who as lady principal for the past three years, has been most efficient, has resigned to accept a position in California. Her place will be filled by Miss Martha C. Weaver, A. M., who filled the position so acceptably from 1893 to 1897, and who has since had the advantage of successful additional experience as dean of women in the Upper Iowa university and of special study in the University of Chicago.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

In the literary faculty only two changes occur, caused by the resignation of Misses Stewart and Pittman. In Miss Stewart's place, Miss Mary Anderson, A. M., University of Illinois, has been appointed, and in Miss Pittman's place, Miss Eva C. Page, Ph. B., of Des Moines college and the University of Chicago. These women, besides being university graduates, have specialized in their respective departments, are teachers of successful experience, and are of helpful Christian influence and character.

COLLEGE OF MUSIC.

In the College of Music, in the places of Misses Bruner and Burnett and Mrs. Vickery will be Miss Laura L. Williamson, who has been on leave of absence for a year for special study, and Mrs. Mathilda Colean, as pianists; and Miss Lula Maude Eldredge, of the Chicago Musical college, as voice teacher. These are also teachers of several years' successful experience and artists in their departments.

The director of the College of Music, Prof. F. L. Stead, has spent the vacation in special study in Paris, but will be home again at the opening of the school, prepared to do still more successful work than ever before.

EQUIPMENT.

Radical changes have been made in various departments of the college plant. The heating apparatus has been removed from the main building and placed in a separate structure, erected at a cost of nearly $20,000, on the lot adjoining the college grounds. This building is very commodious and will contain two new boilers in addition to the old ones which have been removed from the main building; a complete laundry, and a model electric lighting plant. Besides this, on the main floor will be quarters for the men employed about the place.

The lighting plant will consist of a Westinghouse generator and an ideal engine, and is said to be the finest equipment possible. Up-to-date machinery is being installed in the laundry and this department also will be of the best. The removal of the heating plant from the main building insures greater safety and also gives more room for other purposes.

THE SUCCESS OF THE SCHOOL.

Few schools have been as successful as the Woman's college during its long existence, and especially has the rapid advancement of the institution under the presidency of Dr. Barker been especially marked. This large degree of success is no doubt attributable to the fact that only a high standard of teachers are employed, and to the fact that from year to year thousands of dollars are expended in increasing the equipment and advantages of the school. There is no doubt but that during the coming school year the high standard of preceding years will be fully equalled, if not exceeded.

GENTLEMEN,

to the Blood and Nerves What Is Worn Out and Wasted Away.

In this way it builds up and repairs
all manner of weaknesses, and enables one to throw off most of the ills of life. This preparation, known as Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food, overcomes and cures not only such common ills as nervous headache, nervous dyspepsia, sleeplessness, nervous irritability, general debility, etc., but even such serious conditions as profuse blood poverty, neurasthenia, paralysis, dementia, locomotor ataxia, which have hitherto resisted all drug medication. It is not a dope, having a stimulating and only temporary effect, but is a food that feeds the depraved blood and starving brain and nerves cells, and in a natural manner restores them to structural integrity and perfection of function. To convince you that it is really a wonderful food cure, its makers, The Dr. Chase Co., Philadelphia, Pa., ask you to weigh yourself before taking it. Price 50 cents a box, five boxes, enough to give it a fair trial, $2.00. Book free.

Cures

Prevents Disease

The cause of ninety per cent of all disease is a faulty digestive and drainage system—the stomach, liver, bowels, and kidneys. These organs become clogged or, inoperative, and remain in the system many years, poisoning the blood, and making it difficult to correct. One should never allow even a temporary stoppage of any one of these organs, they should be kept constantly in perfect working order.

SEVEN BARKS

Is positively the ideal corrective of all internal ailments. It is not a patent medicine, but an honest, vegetable preparation extracted from the bark of a species of the Hydrangea plant. Its curative properties are numerous.
It is a mild cathartic, digestive, diuretic, soothing, healing and tonic. An occasional dose will keep the whole system in perfect condition, and will act as a safeguard against disease.

Seven Barks has been on the American market for over thirty-five years. Its distributors have reaped a harvest of high praise, letters from people in every walk of life. Thousands of families are never without a bottle. The oldest friends are our best.

Test it for Yourself

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle, and if it does not do what is claimed, take the empty or partly consumed bottle back and get your money. One New York City druggist sold 720 bottles on this basis before one dissatisfied purchaser asked for the return of his money.

Enjoy Using Herpelde on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpelde speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellent use as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause.
Newbro's Herpelde effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness. In killing it, Herpelde stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for its tender, aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpelde Co., Detroit, Mich.

of praise for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says J. Wiley Park, the well known merchant and postmaster at Wiley, Ky. "I have been selling it for three satisfaction. Several of my custom-it for anything. Very often, to my

CURE FOR SICK HEADACHE.

We had a letter the other day from a lady in the town of Boulder, Colo., that should be of interest to people who are troubled with spells of sick headache. She writes that she had these spells about four times a week, was obliged to go to bed and remain there from eight to ten hours each time. Had been troubled this way for several years, and the attacks became more frequent. Doctors did her no good; she tried dieting, as everybody said it was from her stomach. Seeing an advertisement of Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills, which said, they cure sick headache by removing the cause, she decided to try once more, and sent 50c for two boxes. She said she had taken the last pill more than four months ago and has not had a sick spell of any kind for over five months. Druggists sell these pills at 25c per box. It only takes one for a dose, they cure sick headache every time. Lee P. Allcott.

INDICATIONS.

Washington, Sept. 11.—For Illinois: Fair and cooler Sunday. Monday fair; fresh west to northwest winds.

OPERA HOUSE MONDAY EVE. Marquis de Souza Coutinho, the celebrated baritone and nobleman, will appear at the opera house to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. The following is an exchange from the Washington Post:

Marquis de Souza made his American debut at the Columbia theatre, Washington, D. C., Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 22, before a large and ultra-fashionable audience. His first appearance proved that all that has been promised of him, has not been without foundation. It was the sensation of years in Washington. The big baritone, with the picturesque personality and immense voice, fairly took his audience by storm. The newspapers only voiced the general opinion when they said that such a voice had never before been heard there, etc.—Washington Post, Jan. 23, 1901.

This will be the only appearance here, or in any of the smaller cities of the United States.

Mrs. Chambers will go to Virginia this morning.

JACKSONVILLE KINDERGARTEN

Will begin work Sept. 10—Mrs. Garnet Rea is Director—Methods and Aims of the Work.

The Jacksonville Kindergarten (in the Lindsay building, corner North Main and North streets) will begin the year's work on Monday, Sept. 10, under the efficient direction of Mrs. Garnet Rea and four assistants, who hope to welcome and list the usual enrollment of between forty and fifty little men and women.

The kindergarten is a special ward of the Woman's club, the establishment of which is the grandest work that its members could have conferred upon the public. When our Savior would answer the question, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" he called a little child and placed him in the midst of his questioners; and childhood has never descended from the honor thus conferred upon it. Since then education has had to do with the child.

The object of the kindergarten is to utilize the activity of childhood which manifests itself spontaneously in play, and give it an educational direction.

"He who checks a child with terror, stops his play and stills its song. Not alone commits an error, But a great and moral wrong."

"Give it play and never fear it—Active life is no defect; Never, never break its spirit—Curb it only to direct."

"Would you stop the flowing river, Thinking it would cease to flow? Onward it must flow forever, Better teach it where to go."

It is the mission of the kindergarten to direct energy and lead out the activities of the pupils, to look below the surface of a child's nature, below the effect of heredity and environment and see there the true child endued with divine possibilities, which will bear and blossom in the atmosphere of faith and love. It requires no gift of prophecy to see the kindergarten taken out of its isolation in the near future and set in its true relation to education and social progress. A leading thinker said recently that the problems of sociology to day is the finding something for the city boy and girl to do. The philosophy of Froebel is replete with the thought that is stirring the hearts of men at the present time and the beautiful spirit of kindergartens so often commented upon is the result of applying these principles in daily life, regardless of class or creed. One of our great educators who believes in the extension of the free public school system from the kindergarten to a great national university inclusive, says: "Every child should come under the influence of a good kindergarten; there is more real doing and real human blending in a first class kindergarten than any other place in the world. There is a freshness and beauty really not found anywhere else. It is the place for the poor man's child, the laboring man's child, the rich man's child. Indeed any child. The kindergarten gets the child before he becomes self centered and through his entering into the spirit of nature and the feelings and activities of each and all, it establishes a real democracy among them, having its existence in their hearts."

Such training is the object of the Jacksonville kindergarten, the teachers and board, which most earnestly desire the helpful co-operation of parents so essential to the accomplishment of best results. May this enterprise receive the public support which it so richly deserves. It is the wish of all who realize the importance of the right training of children.

MYSTERY SOLVED

Man Murdered at Edwardsville a Year Ago Proves to be Taylor White, Formerly of This City—Remains Brought Here for Burial.

The mystery of the disappearance of Taylor White, (colored) formerly of this city, about a year ago, has been solved. Word reached his mother, Mrs. Abbie Dupree, in St. Louis, a few days ago that the son whom she has been trying to locate for a year might be identical with an unknown man who was killed, supposedly murdered, in Edwardsville a year ago next month, and who at the time could not be identified. Mrs. Dupree went to Edwardsville and had the body disinterred, and at once identified it as that of her son. The clothing and other unmistakable evidences proved the fact beyond a doubt. The remains were brought to this city via the Alton Saturday evening and will be interred to day.

In October of last year the body of a colored man was found lying in a livery barn among the horses. Life was not yet extinct, but ceased shortly after removal to the county hospital. There being no one to claim the remains, they were laid away in the potter's field. The coroner's jury sworn to inquire into the cause of the death, was in session for two days, but failed to fix the crime. The evidence showed that the body had been thrown among the horses after having been strangled and rendered unconscious. Fifty dollars, which he was known to have had on his person, was missing. The horses, with their brute instinct, had snatched the body, and it had not been mutilated as the murderers had evidently hoped.

The matter was allowed to drop, as far as the authorities were concerned, but the mother in St. Louis, worried by the long absence of her son, began to make inquiries as to his whereabouts. Nothing was heard of him until a short time ago, when, through a sister, Mrs. Dupree secured the clue which resulted in the unravelling of the mystery.

Taylor White, while a resident of this city, was employed at the Schoenfeld-Loeb poultry house as a chicken picker. He resided at the corner of Anna and South-West streets, where Ferguson's grocery is now located. From this city he removed to Danville, and about a month before his death to St. Louis. He was about 24 years old, and was a cousin of Misses Ora Glass and Ada Blue and others of this city.

The murdered man had his life insured for $150. This money will be used in re-interring the body, and in again endeavoring to run to earth the murderers. A clue has been found which, it is thought by the relatives of the dead man, will lead to the discovery of the persons who are able to tell of the killing. Steps toward this end have already been taken.

FUNERALS

MARDEN.

The funeral of George W. Marden, who passed away at his home, 715 Hard street, in this city, was held Saturday morning. The remains were taken to Winchester, where services were held in the Christian church, in charge of Elder J. H. Conter. Interment was in the Winchester cemetery.

The bearers in this city were: C. R. Ross, O. A. Kuehler, Abram Wood, C. L. Hayden, M. V. B. Wyatt and W. S. Camp, all Masons.

The remains were accompanied for a distance by members of Carpenters' union No. 904, of this city.

George W. Marden was born at Glasgow, Scott county, Illinois, Feb. 12, 1842. In 1861 he enlisted in the Twenty-seventh Illinois volunteer infantry, in Company B, in which he served three years, and after receiving an honorable discharge returned home.

He was united in marriage Jan. 11, 1866, to Miss Theresa Dyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dyer, of Glasgow. To this union were born one son and three daughters: Lucy, wife of Lewis Hahn, of this city; George Edwin Marden, of Ottumwa, Iowa; Valeria, wife of Charles V. Conyne, of Chicago, and Alice, wife of Harmon G. Wilson, of Denver, Colo.

Mr. Marden was deputy sheriff of Scott county for several years and held a number of positions of trust. In early manhood he united with the Christian church at Glasgow and led an exemplary Christian life of kindness and good deeds. He was a prominent member of the Masonic order, and also of the Grand Army, at Winchester, to which city he moved in the spring of 1880 from Glasgow; removing to Jacksonville in 1899. Mr. Marden's disposition was a kind and gentle one, considerate always to a considerable extent to others; a loving husband and devoted father, and one who typified not only the patriot, but the good citizen as well. He has answered the last roll call and gone to join the silent majority. He leaves a sorrowing wife and four children, as named above; also three sisters and one brother to mourn for the one who cannot be recalled to them.
